California Department of Public Health Warns Consumers Not to Eat Semifreddi's Almond Biscotti and Chocolate Dipped Almond Biscotti

SACRAMENTO – Dr. Ron Chapman, director of the California Department of Public Health (CDPH) and state health officer, today warned consumers with milk or soy allergies not to eat “Semifreddi’s Almond Biscotti” and “Semifreddi’s Chocolate Dipped Almond Biscotti” due to undeclared allergens, milk and soy.

Semifreddi’s, Inc. of Alameda, California, is voluntarily recalling the biscotti products with an “Enjoy By” date prior to 091614. The recall was initiated after CDPH identified the labeling omission during a routine inspection. No illnesses have been reported at this time.

The following products are affected by this recall:
